

Streets Payroll:

A smarter way to manage payroll

Managing payroll can be complex, time-consuming and full of compliance challenges. Whether you have a small team or a large workforce, ensuring accuracy, meeting deadlines and staying compliant with HMRC regulations is essential to avoid fines and penalties.

That's why many businesses choose to outsource their payroll to a trusted provider like Streets Payroll—giving them peace of mind and the freedom to focus on growing their business.

Why outsource your payroll?

- Reduce admin time: free up valuable resources by eliminating the burden of in-house payroll processing.
- Ensure compliance: stay up to date with the latest HMRC regulations, including Real-Time Information (RTI) and Auto-enrolment.
- Minimise risk: avoid errors, PAYE arrears and potential penalties.
- Improve data security: benefit from robust payroll systems and secure reporting.
- Enhance efficiency: gain access to payroll specialists without the cost of hiring an in-house team.
- Scalability: Whether you have one employee or 400+, our payroll services adapt to your needs.

When is the best time to outsource payroll?

The start of the new tax year, is the ideal time to review, switch or outsource your payroll provider. Here's why:

- Seamless transition: no mid-year complications or adjustments to payroll records.
- Clean financial reporting: aligns with the tax year for accurate reporting and auditing.
- Compliance readiness: stay ahead of new HMRC updates and requirements.
- Time to focus: instead of managing payroll complexities, focus on business growth.
